Audio script:

Mr. Pool: Ah, good morning! Are you Scott? You're from the newspaper?

Scott: Yes, that's right. I'm Scott. Nice to meet you.

Mr. Pool: And you. Come in! So this is my house.

Scott: Very nice!

Mr. Pool: Would you like a drink? Can I get you a tea or coffee?

Scott: Yes, thank you. A cup of tea please, lemon no sugar.

Mr. Pool: Here you go young man. And there are some chocolate biscuits, too.

Scott: Thank you, Mr. Pool. And thank you for the interview.

Mr. Pool: Oh, that's no problem. I'm very happy to answer your questions.

Scott: OK so, how old are you?

Mr. Pool: I'm 75.

Scott: 75? And do you have a busy lifestyle?

Mr. Pool: Oh yes. I have three sons and seven grandchildren. I see them every week. We go out to the park. The children play and I look after them. And there's my blog – I write a blog.

Scott: Ah yes, your blog, 'The internet for old people'. And why do you write about the internet?

Mr. Pool: Well, many old people, people my age, they don't use the internet. They say it's difficult. But it's not. It's easy. I help older people use the internet.

Scott: And when do you write your blog?

Mr. Pool: Oh, every week. There's a new blog every Tuesday morning.

Scott: I see. You're very busy. How do you relax?

Mr. Pool: Well, I go to a café in the city. I have breakfast with some old friends. We chat and drink coffee.

Scott: I see. So can I ask ...
